'Benefits' means all non-monetary benefits provided at the Employer's expense to or on behalf of a Specified Statutory Officer as a personal benefit, including a vehicle (where provided – refer clause 2.4) and parking (refer clause 2.5), the value attributed by the Remuneration Tribunal to the Employer's Superannuation Contribution (refer clause 2.3) and any other benefits received by way of remuneration packaging (refer clause 2.2).

2.2 Remuneration packaging: Subject to this part, a Specified Statutory Officer may elect to receive the value of Total Remuneration, other than the value of the Employer's Superannuation Contribution, as salary or as a combination of salary and Benefits. Any election must be consistent with relevant taxation laws and rulings or guidelines applicable to salary packaging schemes issued by the Australian Taxation Office. Any election must not result in a cost to the employer (including in relation to any fringe benefits taxation) additional to the cost which would be incurred if all of the Total Remuneration elements able to be taken as salary were taken as salary.

2.3 Superannuation

2.3.1 For a Specified Statutory Officer who is a member of a Commonwealth defined benefits superannuation scheme, specified in Clauses 2.3.2, 2.3.3, 2.3.5 or 2.3.6 of this determination, the Superannuation Salary is 70 per cent of Total Remuneration.

- 2.3.7 For a Specified Statutory Officer who is a member of any other superannuation fund, the Employer's Superannuation Contribution is to be made at the rate elected by the Specified Statutory Officer, which must not be less than a rate that would, under section 23 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, reduce the charge percentage in relation to that Specified Statutory Officer to zero.
- 2.3.8 No cash in lieu: The value attributable by virtue of this clause to the Employer's Superannuation Contribution is referable to a non-salary component of Total Remuneration and may not be the subject of an election to take an equivalent amount of salary instead.

- 2.6 Chief of the Defence Force: The employer may approve housing assistance in accordance with agency policy and practices.
