Table 2A – Classification Structure and Total Remuneration for Specified Pay Points

Level	Pay point	1 July 2014
Level 1A (PM&C)		$802,820
Level 1B (Treasury)		$785,410
Level 1	1	$764,420
	2	$737,800
	3	$698,880
Level 2	1	$691,200
	2	$670,210
	3	$649,220

- 2.2 Offices of Secretary are classified by reference to the Department to which each office relates as shown in table 2B below.

Table 2B – Classification of Offices of Secretary

Level	Departments
Level 1A	Prime Minister and Cabinet
Level 1B	Treasury
Level 1	Defence; Finance; Foreign Affairs and Trade; Health; Human Services; Industry; Social Services
Level 2	Agriculture; Attorney-General's; Communications; Education; Employment; Environment; Immigration and Border Protection; Infrastructure and Regional Development; Veterans' Affairs

- 2.3 A Secretary at classification Level 1A or Level 1B is entitled to the Total Remuneration specified for that level in Table 2A.
- 2.4 Subject to clause 2.7, subclauses 2.8(1) and 2.8(2) and subclauses 2.9(1) and 2.9(2), a Secretary at classification Level 1 or Level 2 is entitled to the Total Remuneration specified for the pay point to which the office is assigned by a Pay Point Assignment.
- 2.5 If a person is appointed to more than one office of Secretary at the same time, the person is entitled to the Total Remuneration specified for the highest of the pay points that would apply in relation to any of the appointments on its own.
- 2.6 If a person is appointed to an office of Secretary that does not appear in the classification in Table 2B, then, until the Table has been amended to include the office and a Pay Point Assignment has been made for the office, the Secretary is entitled to:
- if the Secretary has been transferred from another office of Secretary — the Total Remuneration specified for the pay point that applied to the person in his or her former office; or
 - in any other case — the Total Remuneration specified for the lowest pay point for Level 2.

Pay Point Assignments

- 2.7 Unless subclause 2.9(1) or subclause 2.9(2) applies, a Pay Point Assignment must assign an office of Secretary to a pay point within the classification level of the office.
- 2.8(1) If a person who is a Secretary is appointed to another office of Secretary that is assigned to a pay point which is lower than the pay point that applied to the person in the former office, then until the time when the instrument of appointment to the previous office would have expired according to its terms, the Secretary is entitled to the Total Remuneration specified from time to time for the pay point that would have applied to him or her in the former office.
- 2.8(2) If during the period of a person's appointment to an office of Secretary the pay point which applies to that office is lowered, the person is entitled, until that period of appointment ends, to the Total Remuneration specified from time to time for the pay point that would have applied to him or her if the pay point had not been lowered.

2.9(1) If subclause 2.8(1) has applied to a person appointed to an office of Secretary and, at the time that the instrument of appointment to the previous office would have expired according to its terms, the Secretary of PM&C, after consultation with the President of the Tribunal and the Australian Public Service Commissioner, is satisfied that it is appropriate in the circumstances to maintain the remuneration of the Secretary at a higher level than would apply under clause 2.7, a Pay Point Assignment may assign the person to a pay point not higher than the one that previously applied to the person.

2.9(2) This subclause applies if, upon the end of the appointment (the 'previous appointment') of a person referred to in subclause 2.8(2), that person is appointed to another office of Secretary or reappointed to the same office of Secretary (the 'current appointment'). If, where this subclause applies, the Secretary of PM&C, after consultation with the President of the Tribunal and the Australian Public Service Commissioner, is satisfied that it is appropriate for the remuneration of the Secretary in respect of the current appointment to be at a higher level than would otherwise apply through the application of clause 2.7, a Pay Point Assignment may assign the person to a pay point not higher than the one that applied to the person immediately before the end of the previous appointment.

Content of Total Remuneration and remuneration packaging

2.10 Subject to this Part, a Secretary may elect to receive the benefit of the Total Remuneration, other than the value of the Employer's Superannuation Contribution, in cash as salary or as a combination of salary and other Benefits.

2.11 Any election made in accordance with clause 2.10 must be consistent with relevant taxation laws and rulings or guidelines issued by the Australian Taxation Office applicable to salary packaging schemes.

2.12 Any election made in accordance with clause 2.10 must not result in cost to the Commonwealth (including in relation to any fringe benefits taxation) additional to the cost which would be incurred if all of the Total Remuneration elements able to be taken as salary were taken as salary.

2.13 The value attributable to the following is not taken to be part of the Total Remuneration:

- (a) facilities provided as business support under clauses 2.22 to 2.25; or
- (b) travelling allowances and expenditure specified in Part 3; or
- (c) compensation for early loss of office specified in Part 5; or
- (d) removal costs, accommodation allowances and reunion airfares specified in Part 7; or
- (e) any other Benefits provided by the Commonwealth that the Tribunal determines should not be taken to be part of the Total Remuneration.

Superannuation

2.14 For a Secretary who is a member of the Commonwealth Superannuation Scheme:

- (a) the Secretary's annual rate of salary for the purposes of the scheme is the Secretary's Base Salary; and
- (b) the value attributed to the Employer's Superannuation Contribution is taken to be 15.4% of the Secretary's Base Salary.

2.15 For a Secretary who is a member of the Public Sector Superannuation Scheme:

- (a) the Secretary's basic salary for the purposes of the scheme is the Secretary's Base Salary; and

- (b) the amount of the Secretary's recognised allowances for the purpose of the scheme is zero; and
- (c) the value attributed to the Employer's Superannuation Contribution is taken to be 15.4% of the Secretary's Base Salary.

2.16 For a Secretary who is a member of the Public Sector Superannuation Accumulation Plan, the Secretary's superannuation salary for the purposes of the scheme is the Secretary's ordinary time earnings (OTE).

2.17 For a Secretary who is a member of any other superannuation fund, the Employer's Superannuation Contribution is to be made at the rate elected by the Secretary, which must not be less than a rate that would, under section 23 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, reduce the charge percentage in relation to that Secretary to zero.

Vehicle and parking

2.18 A Secretary may elect to receive a Commonwealth provided vehicle as a Benefit. The value attributed to this Benefit is to be the actual cost (including fringe benefits tax) of the vehicle to the Commonwealth.

2.19 The Executive Vehicle Scheme Guidelines issued by the APSC apply to the selection of a vehicle referred to in clause 2.18.

2.20 A Secretary's Total Remuneration amount includes provision for any use of a vehicle by the Secretary for business-related purposes.

2.21 Where a Secretary accepts an offer of a car park at Commonwealth expense, the actual cost (including fringe benefits tax) of the car park to the Department will be a Benefit for Total Remuneration purposes.

Business support

2.22 A Secretary is entitled to the provision by his or her Department of communications, information technology and other office facilities necessary for the efficient conduct of the Commonwealth's business, and such provision includes incidental private use of those facilities. Where required, separate telecommunications lines to a Secretary's residence in support of these facilities may be provided at no cost to the Secretary.

2.23 A Secretary is entitled to be reimbursed by the Commonwealth for all costs of installation and rental of a telephone line and telephone at his or her residence and for all call charges on that telephone.

2.24 If a Secretary maintains 2 residences, he or she is entitled to be reimbursed by the Commonwealth in the terms of clause 2.23 in relation to a telephone line and telephone at one of his or her residences and, in relation to the other residence, is entitled to be reimbursed only for 50% of the call charges and no other costs.

2.25 A Secretary is entitled to 2 domestic airline lounge memberships at Commonwealth expense.

PART 3 - OFFICIAL TRAVEL

Entitlement to official travel

3.1 A Secretary is entitled to Tier 1 travel entitlements as determined by the Remuneration Tribunal in Determination 2013/16 (as amended) – Official Travel by Office Holders - (or any Determination that supersedes 2013/16).

PART 4 - LEAVE

Normal duty

- 4.1 A Secretary is to be available for duty when required by the Secretary's Minister and on all days his or her Department is open for and conducts normal business.

Recreation (Annual) leave

- 4.2 A Secretary is entitled to recreation leave at a rate of 20 working days for each completed 12 months of service, or pro rata for lesser periods, to be credited in the same way as recreation leave entitlements are credited to employees generally in the Secretary's Department.
- 4.3 A Secretary's recreation leave credit includes any existing recreation leave accrued either through prior service in the Australian Public Service or the ACT Government Service, or through employment in a Commonwealth Authority, that in either case ceased not more than 2 months prior to being appointed as a Secretary.
- 4.4 Where a Secretary ceases to be a Secretary, other than by death, and does not carry forward a recreation leave credit to other Commonwealth employment, he or she is entitled to be paid, at the Reference Salary rate at that time, for any recreation leave credit accrued and unused at the date he or she ceased to be a Secretary, but if a Secretary has died, the Secretary's Minister may authorise payment of this amount to a dependant of the Secretary or the Secretary's legal personal representative.
- 4.5 A Secretary may elect to cash out up to half of his or her annual recreation leave entitlement in any year, at the Reference Salary rate at the time of election. The balance of leave remaining must be at least 4 weeks after any cashing out. This provision is only available where the Secretary's Department has a policy that allows employees generally in that Department to cash out up to half of their annual recreation leave entitlements.

Personal leave

- 4.6 A Secretary is entitled to personal leave which may be accessed at full or half pay to accommodate personal illness or injury, to care for a family member or to meet family responsibilities of an emergency and unscheduled nature.
- 4.7 A Secretary's entitlement to personal leave accrues at the rate of 15 days full pay on the date of initial appointment plus a further 15 days at the end of each 12 months' service.
- 4.8 Deleted.
- 4.9 In addition to the personal leave entitlement specified in clause 4.7, a Secretary's sick leave entitlements accrued either through prior service in the Australian Public Service or in the service of an Australian State or Territory Government, or through employment in a Commonwealth Authority, that in either case ceased not more than 2 months prior to being appointed a Secretary, will be recognised as if accrued while as a Secretary and will be paid at full pay or half pay as recognised on appointment.
- 4.10 Neither unused personal leave nor unused sick leave accrued through prior service referred to in clause 4.9 will be paid out where a Secretary ceases for whatever reason to be a Secretary.
- 4.11 The Secretary's Minister may grant additional personal leave to a Secretary at the Secretary's Minister's discretion.

Miscellaneous leave

4.12 The Prime Minister or his or her delegate may grant leave of absence to a Secretary for a purpose that the Prime Minister or his or her delegate considers to be in the interests of the Commonwealth. Such leave of absence may be with or without pay and subject to conditions at the discretion of the Prime Minister or his or her delegate.

Statutory leave provisions

4.13 A Secretary is entitled to long service leave in accordance with the Long Service Leave (Commonwealth Employees) Act 1976 and maternity leave in accordance with the Maternity Leave (Commonwealth Employees) Act 1973.

Application for leave

4.14 If a Secretary wishes to take any recreation leave, long service leave, personal leave or maternity leave to which he or she is entitled, or a mixture of them, he or she must apply:

- (a) for a total period of 3 months or less — to the Secretary's Minister; and
- (b) for a total period of more than 3 months — to the Prime Minister or his or her delegate.

PART 5 - LOSS OF OFFICE

5.1 Where a Secretary is terminated in accordance with the provisions of subsection 56(2) or subsection 59(1) of the Public Service Act 1999 and the Commonwealth has not made the Secretary an offer of suitable alternative employment, the Secretary is entitled upon his or her termination to be paid:

- (a) for a termination 12 months or more before the end of the Secretary's term of appointment — 12 months' Reference Salary at the time of termination; or
- (b) for a termination less than 12 months before the end of the Secretary's term of appointment — 1 month's Reference Salary for each full month of the balance of the term not served, subject to a minimum payment of 6 months' Reference Salary at the time of termination.

5.2 In determining whether, for the purpose of clause 5.1, there has been an offer of suitable alternative employment, account is to be taken of any offer of employment with the Commonwealth, the administration of a Territory, or a public statutory corporation referred to in paragraph 3(4)(d) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973, or an incorporated company all the stock or shares in the capital of which is or are beneficially owned by the Commonwealth or by a public statutory corporation, or an incorporated company limited by guarantee where the interests and rights of the members in or in relation to the company are beneficially owned by the Commonwealth or by a public statutory corporation.

5.3 If:

- (a) a Secretary who has been terminated (the 'former Secretary') is appointed to suitable alternative employment in an office within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal; and
- (b) the Total Remuneration that applies to that position is less than the Total Remuneration for the lowest pay point in the classification level of the office from which the former Secretary has been terminated;

then the Tribunal may determine that, for up to 12 months from the appointment:

- (c) the former Secretary is entitled to Total Remuneration at that pay point; and
- (d) the former Secretary's superannuation salary for the purposes of a Commonwealth defined benefits scheme will be 70% of that Total Remuneration.

Note: The Remuneration Tribunal will make an individual determination in each case.

PART 6 - NOTICE OF A DECISION NOT TO REAPPOINT

- 6.1 A Secretary who is not given 3 months' notice that he or she will not be reappointed to an office of Secretary at the expiration of his or her current term is entitled to 3 months' Reference Salary unless the Commonwealth has made the Secretary an offer of suitable alternative employment.
- 6.2 In determining whether, for the purpose of clause 6.1, an offer of suitable alternative employment has been made, regard is to be had to any offer of employment of the kind described in clause 5.2.
