

REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Explanatory Statement: Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination 2019

---

1. The Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973 (the Act) establishes the Remuneration Tribunal (the Tribunal) as an independent statutory authority responsible for reporting on and determining the remuneration, allowances and entitlements of key Commonwealth office holders. These include Judges of Federal Courts and most full-time and part-time holders of public offices, including Specified Statutory Offices. An additional function of the Tribunal is to determine a classification structure for Principal Executive Offices and the terms and conditions applicable to each classification within the structure.

Consultation

2. Section 11 of the Act advises that in the performance of its functions the Tribunal:
  - may inform itself in such manner as it thinks fit;
  - may receive written or oral statements;
  - is not required to conduct any proceeding in a formal manner; and
  - is not bound by the rules of evidence.
3. The Tribunal normally receives submissions on remuneration from a portfolio minister, or a Secretary, program manager or employing body (in respect of a Principal Executive Office) with responsibility for the relevant office(s). The Tribunal will normally seek the views of the relevant Portfolio Minister prior to determining remuneration for an office.
4. The Tribunal may reach a decision based on the information provided in the submission and other publicly available information such as portfolio budget statements, annual reports, corporate plans, legislation and media releases. On occasion it may wish to meet with relevant parties or seek further information from the relevant minister or person making the submission.
5. Amongst other relevant matters in deliberating on appropriate remuneration for an office the Tribunal informs itself on:
  - the main functions, responsibilities and accountabilities of the office;
  - the organisational structure, budget and workforce;
  - the requisite characteristics, skills or qualifications required of the office holder(s); and
  - the remuneration of similar, comparator, offices within its jurisdiction.

Annual review

6. The Tribunal's obligations, under sub-sections 7(3) and 8(1)(b) of the Act are to make determinations in respect of remuneration for various offices within its jurisdiction at periods of not more than one year. To meet these obligations, the Tribunal issued determinations on 25 June 2018 and at that time included a general adjustment of 2 per cent to remuneration for all offices in its jurisdiction.

7. In complying with its obligations to make new determinations the Tribunal takes the opportunity to consider whether any general increase to remuneration for offices might be warranted. In conducting this review the Tribunal takes account of economic conditions in Australia, past and projected movements in remuneration in the public and private sectors (including the Australian Public Service), as well as the outcomes of reviews of public offices completed by the Tribunal. In order to inform its conclusions the Tribunal draws upon authoritative external sources such as the published material available from the Government, the Reserve Bank of Australia and the Australian Bureau of Statistics as well as trends in public and private sector remuneration. The Tribunal is also obliged by the Act to consider the Annual Wage Reviews of the Fair Work Commission. The Commission's 2019 decision was released on 30 May 2019.
8. The Tribunal did not receive any submissions on this matter.
9. On 6 June 2019 the Tribunal notified its decision to increase remuneration by 2 per cent for public offices in its jurisdiction with effect from 1 July 2019. A statement setting out the Tribunal's reasons for decision is available at www.remtribunal.gov.au.
10. Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination 2019 implements the Tribunal's decision for Part-time Public Offices.
11. Consultation on these amendments was considered unnecessary given the matters considered by the Tribunal in making its decision.

Fees for sub-committee Chairs of governing Boards

12. The Tribunal has taken the opportunity to make minor variations to the wording of provisions for fees for sub-committees, to ensure its policy intent is clearly conveyed, that the Chairs and Deputy Chairs of Boards are not entitled to additional fees for participation in sub-committees, as their fees already encompass all those responsibilities. No consultation occurred on this matter given there is no change to the Tribunal's practice.

Re-ordering of remuneration tables

13. The Tribunal has reordered items in the annual and daily fees tables to present the information in a more uniform manner, in this case, organised alphabetically in Chair fee descending order.

Retrospectivity

14. Any retrospective application of this determination is in accordance with subsection 12(2) of the Legislation Act 2003 as it does not affect the rights of a person (other than the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth) to that person's disadvantage, nor does it impose any liability on such a person.

The power to repeal, rescind and revoke, amend and vary

15. Under subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character (including rules, regulations or by-laws), the power shall be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions (if any) to repeal, rescind, revoke, amend, or vary any such instrument.

This legislative instrument is compatible with the human rights and freedoms recognised or declared in the international instruments listed in section 3 of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011

Overview of the Legislative Instrument

The legislative instrument, or determination, applies the Tribunal's 2019 annual review decision of a 2 per cent remuneration increase (rounded as appropriate) to the Part-Time Public Offices from 1 July 2019.

The determination revokes and supersedes the previous Remuneration Tribunal (Remuneration and Allowances for Holders of Part-time Public Office) Determination 2018 (as amended).

The changes follow a review of the remuneration (and significantly related matters) carried out by the Tribunal consistent with sub-section 7(3) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973.

In addition to implementing the Tribunal's 2019 annual review decision and reformatting some remuneration tables, the determination makes minor wording changes to the provision of fees for sub-committees of governing boards to ensure the Tribunal's policy intent is clearly expressed.

The instrument maintains the principle of fair, and current, remuneration for work performed.

Human rights implications
