STATEMENT

The remuneration and work expenses framework for parliamentarians, established by the Parliamentary Business Resources Act 2017 (PBR Act), sets out a number of inquiry, reporting and determinative obligations on the Tribunal, to be completed at least once each year.

As detailed in its statement of 11 June 2020, the Tribunal has completed its inquiry into remuneration for public offices, including parliamentary base salary and related matters.

The Tribunal has also completed its inquiries in relation to the remaining remuneration matters (including electorate allowance) and the remuneration and allowances for former parliamentarians set out in its Members of Parliament determination, as well as the relevant travel-related matters prescribed in the Parliamentary Business Resources Regulations 2017.

The Tribunal has concluded that no changes to the provisions for which it has responsibility are necessary at this time.

The Tribunal will issue a new principal Members of Parliament determination effective from 1 July 2020. The new determination makes no changes to the remuneration provisions in place at this time.

The Tribunal's determination will be available on its website - <http://www.remtribunal.gov.au/> once it is registered.
