- 3.4 Part 2 of the Principal Determination is amended by replacing Clause 2.8 and all its sub clauses to and including 2.8.4 with the following:

2.8 Separation benefits: The separation benefits of an office holder other than a Judge are to be determined in accordance with the following sub-clauses.

2.8.1. There is no entitlement to separation benefits under Clause 2.8.3 where:

- (i) the person served the full term of appointment;
- (ii) the person was appointed on a part-time basis and is paid in accordance with clause 2.4, 2.5 or 2.6;
- (iii) the appointment was terminated prematurely for reasons of misbehaviour or unsatisfactory performance; or
- (iv) the appointment was terminated prematurely on account of mental or physical incapacity; or
- (v) the person resigns or retires; or
- (vi) the person's appointment was terminated prematurely because the person became bankrupt, applied to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounded with his or her creditors, or made an assignment of his or her remuneration for the benefit of his or her creditors.

2.8.2 Subject to Clause 2.8.1, where a person's appointment to a public office is terminated prematurely, the Commonwealth may elect to offer suitable alternative employment (including in a Commonwealth company or authority).

2.8.2.1 For the purposes of Clause 2.8.2 an offer of suitable alternative employment is taken to have been made to the person if the person is on leave without pay or some other form of authorised absence from APS employment and is able to resume that employment following the termination of their appointment.

2.8.3 Where the Commonwealth does not offer suitable alternative employment under Clause 2.8.2, the Commonwealth will pay the office holder one-third of one month's base salary, or Reference Salary in the case of an office holder remunerated under Part 5, per month of service remaining, in lieu of obligations such as provision of notice or payment instead of notice or redundancy pay and subject to:

- (i) a minimum payment of four month's base salary or Reference Salary; and
- (ii) a maximum payment of one year's base salary or Reference Salary.

2.8.4 Under Clause 2.8.3, the Commonwealth may calculate service remaining by excluding any period of Commonwealth service in alternative employment to be performed during the remaining term of the appointment where the alternative employment commenced immediately after the termination. The Commonwealth may require an office holder to sign a release in return for the payment.
