Under section 12C of the Act, the employing body for a principal executive office may determine the terms and conditions (including remuneration and allowances) that apply to the office. The terms and conditions must not be inconsistent with this instrument, except with the written consent of the Tribunal (see subsection 12C(2) of the Act).

Part 2—Classification and remuneration, and related matters

12 Classification structure

The following table sets out the classification structure for principal executive offices.

Table 2A—Classification structure and remuneration ranges

Column 1 Classification	Column 2 Total remuneration range
PEO band A	up to $271,830
PEO band B	$249,170 to $390,740
PEO band C	$339,780 to $520,990
PEO band D	$453,030 to $736,180
PEO band E	from $645,570

13 Remuneration

A PEO's employing body must determine the value for the following components of the PEO's remuneration, consistently with this instrument:

(a) total remuneration;

(b) performance pay;

(c) any allowances under Part 5.

Note 1: Under subsection 3A(4) of the Act, the Minister may fix the commencing remuneration for a principal executive office by giving a notice to the employing body. The employing body's initial determination of remuneration must be consistent with the notice.

Note 2: Under subsection 12C(2) of the Act, a PEO's employing body must not determine terms and conditions inconsistent with this instrument, unless the Tribunal provides written consent. The Tribunal intends to provide written advice to employing bodies each financial year setting out the extent to which any pay variations may occur without further consideration by the Tribunal, and provide consent for employing bodies to act in keeping with that advice.

14 Setting remuneration

In determining the value of the terms and conditions for a PEO, the PEO's employing body is expected to exercise prudent business judgement commensurate with the responsibilities and accountabilities of the office. Relevant considerations include (but are not limited to) the following:

(a) the work value, role and responsibilities of the office;

(b) that improvements in pay and conditions should be linked to productivity gains;
(c) the ability of the employing body to recruit and retain persons with the necessary qualities and skills;
(d) other relevant factors such as adjustments to the remuneration rates for the principal executive office classification structure.

15 Adjustment of remuneration

(1) Total remuneration determined by a PEO's employing body may not be varied, except with the written consent of the Tribunal.

(2) If a variation is consented to, the total remuneration determined by the employing body must not be outside the range for the PEO's band set out in Table 2A.

16 No retrospectivity

A PEO's employing body may not backdate any variation in the PEO's remuneration.

17 Part-time work

(1) If a PEO's employer approves the PEO to perform the duties of the office on a part-time basis, the superannuation salary, total remuneration and performance pay are to be calculated on a pro-rata basis in accordance with the proportion of full-time hours worked.

(2) If the proposed hours are less than 60% of the full-time hours, prior agreement of the Tribunal to the remuneration level is required.

18 Remuneration packaging

(1) Subject to this Part and Part 3, a PEO may elect to receive the benefit of the PEO's remuneration as salary or a combination of salary and benefits if:
(a) the election is consistent with relevant taxation laws and rulings or guidelines applicable to salary packaging schemes issued by the Australian Taxation Office; and
(b) providing the benefit would not result in a cost to the employer (including in relation to any fringe benefits tax) that would not be incurred if the PEO received the remuneration in the form of salary.

(2) To avoid doubt, a superannuation contribution made as a result of an election by a PEO under subsection (1) does not form part of the employer superannuation contribution for the PEO.

Authorised Version F2026C01095 registered 27/10/2026

19 Performance pay

(1) Unless the Tribunal has consented to the removal of any entitlement to performance pay, a PEO's employing body may establish a performance pay scheme under which the PEO may be paid a lump sum based on assessment of the performance of the PEO over a 12-month cycle.

Maximum

(2) The maximum amount available for a 12-month cycle must not exceed:
  (a) for an office in band A, B or C—15% of total remuneration; or
  (b) for an office in band D or E—20% of total remuneration.
