

FOI DISCLOSURE LOG

The Remuneration Tribunal is required by s 11C of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) to publish a disclosure log on its website.

The FOI disclosure log lists information which has been released by the Tribunal in response to an FOI access request. This requirement has applied since 1 May 2011.

The disclosure log requirement does not apply to:

- personal information about any person if publication of that information would be 'unreasonable';
- information about the business, commercial, financial or professional affairs of any person if publication of that information would be 'unreasonable';
- other information, covered by a determination made by the Australian Information Commissioner, if publication of that information would be 'unreasonable';
- any information if it is not reasonably practicable to publish the information because of the extent of modifications that would need to be made to delete the information listed in the above points.

The information described in the disclosure log table below has been released by the Tribunal under the FOI Act and is available for public access.

A link is provided if the information can be downloaded from this website or another website.

Information that is not available online may be obtained by contacting the FOI Contact Officer at:

Remuneration Tribunal Secretariat
PO Box 281

Tel: 02 6202 3930

Email: FOI@remtribunal.gov.au

A charge may be imposed to reimburse the Tribunal for the cost incurred in copying or reproducing the information or sending it to you. There will be no charge for the time spent processing the FOI request that led to this information being made available. You will be notified if any charge is payable and required to pay the charge before the information is provided.

There may be documents in the disclosure log that are currently not available in HTML format. If there is a link that you are unable to read please contact us for an alternative format. We will try to meet all reasonable requests for an alternative format of the document in a timely manner and at the lowest reasonable cost to you.
